

Dimitris Kaperdanakis

I am from Greece. Driving change in the field of diabetes needs collaborative approaches and some true inspiration. I am glad to join a platform able to support my dreams for a future where diabetes can do no harm. We are all in this together, we share common ground. The YLD program can teach us a lot about how to ensure the prosperity of people living with diabetes and make our society more inclusive.

