

Moti Perlmutter is the General Manager of the Israel Diabetes Association since 2007. He has more than 35 years of managerial experience in all disciplines, holding a MBA degree in Business Administration and a BA in Economics. Between 2009 and 2015, he was a Board Member at IDF Europe, in charge of the corporate partner's portfolio as well as Internal Controller. He has been President and Member of more than 30 Boards of Directors, mainly in Life Science and Patients Associations, and General Manager of one of the largest clinical trials company in Israel. From 2006 to 2013, he was mentor and coach at Ben-Gurion University in building NGOs, primarily associated with medical research and people with disabilities. He is very active in the fields of diabetes prevention and advocacy for people living with diabetes; he is a member of “The Israeli National Council of Diabetes”, the highest advising committee to the Minister of Health. He is co-founder and Board Member of “Let Sick People Live”, an NGO advocating for the importance of clinical trials for developing new medicines. As of 2020, he is Special Advisor to the Board on fundraisings and finances at IDF Europe.
